Colossians: The Supremacy of Christ

Read Colossians 3.18-4.1

1. What does it mean to be a new creation? Look at 2 Corinthians 5.17 and Romans 5.14-21.
2. What is the character and the priorities of the new creation (3.12-17)? How does this relate to Paul's commands for the home and work?
3. What is the overarching goal of loving my wife, training up my children in the Lord and submitting to the leadership of my boss (1 Corinthians 10.31; Matthew 5.14-15)?
4. Husbands, what needs to change (put off and put on) so you can obey the Lord and love your wife as you are called to (3.19; Ephesians 5.25-30; 1 Peter 3.7)?
5. Wives, what needs to change (put off and put on) so you can obey the Lord and his desire for you as you relate to your husband (3.18; Titus 2.4-5)?
6. What is biblical love compared to the mythical love that so many get trapped by?
7. How do we lead our children to obey and how do we not (3.20-21)?
8. What is your primary goal for your children? What is your part in their spiritual life and growth? What should it be (Deuteronomy 6.4-9; Proverbs 22.6)?
9. How is your witness at work? What needs to change with your work (3.22-4.1)?

Pray.
